

AUTHORIZATION TO CONTACT OTHER SIGNIFICANT CAREGIVER (Rev. 1.0)

The Canadian Co-Parenting Centres believe that when working with children it is usually beneficial to have all significant caregivers involved to some degree. Also, pursuant to Canada's Divorce Act, even if one parent has sole custody, the 'access parent' is entitled to information.

16. (5) Unless the court orders otherwise, a spouse who is granted access to a child of the marriage has the right to make inquiries, and to be given information, as to the health, education and welfare of the child.

I _____ have requested the Canadian Co-Parenting Centres to provide counselling services to the children listed below.

I hereby authorize the Canadian Co-Parenting Centres to contact _____ who is _____

The contact information is _____

The reason for contacting could include, but is not limited to; inform him/her that counselling is being sought, inviting them to participate in some way, confirm whether or not they want to participate, confirm whether or not they are in agreement with the children receiving counselling.
